AGENDA

SIG-I MEETING, 17 DECEMBER 1985

The SIG-I will review key developments relating to:

a. The recent Congressional hearings on counterintelligence and security, including a possible Counterintelligence Capabilities Improvement Report.

b. The activities of various Intelligence Community components such as the SIG-I/IG system, pertinent DCI committees, and the National Telecommunications and Information Systems Security Committee, with particular reference to the status of critical CI and security issues

c. The status of the NSC Implementation Task Force.

Representatives of pertinent Intelligence Community components will assist the SIG-I review by briefing appropriately on key developments.

The objective is to assist the SIG-I, which is at the top of the national CI/CM policymaking pyramid, in its ongoing integration and policy formulation across the entire counterintelligence and countermeasure spectrum.
